

MIND art POSTER Competition

for 11 countries in the WHO South-East Asia Region

CALLING YOUNG ADVOCATES AND ARTISTS!

The theme for World Health Day 2017 is 'Depression: Let's Talk'

Design a poster on the theme of Depression that highlights important issues related to the care of those with this condition.

Winners will be acknowledged by the WHO Regional Office for South-East Asia and the respective Country Offices.

The winning posters will be published with due credit, in the World Health Day advocacy materials.

Entries are invited in two categories:

Category A: 13 to 17 years

Category B: 18 to 25 years

Last day to send entries: 17 October 2016

For more information, refer to the attached guidelines

Countries in the WHO South-East Asia Region:

Bangladesh, Bhutan, Democratic People's Republic of Korea, India, Indonesia, Maldives, Myanmar, Nepal, Sri Lanka, Thailand and Timor-Leste